Around the Park

Welcome to Victor Harbor and thank you for choosing to stay with us. We hope your stay here is a fun and enjoyable experience during the busy festive season. There is plenty of events and activities going on around the town and within the park with the lead up to Christmas. We will again be having the Victor Scripture Union Family Mission returning to the park this year from the 26th to the 5th Jan, to continue their good work and they will continue to run several school holiday activities for all kids from the park welcome to come and join in the fun. See noticeboard outside office for further details. We will also continue our movie screenings, face painting and more. Dates to be advised so be sure to keep your eye out on the notice board at reception for other activities and events organised with in the park these Christmas holidays.

WHAT'S ON

The Victor Harbor Christmas pageant is a historic event, remembered throughout the generations. The evening street parade begins at 6.30pm with the first of many floats to begin their travel down the main street. There will be performances from the Victor Harbor City Band, Enfield Brass Band, Hahndorf Town Band, local dancing schools, sporting groups and of course Father

Christmas with his special fairies and lots of lollies to giveaway. A magic cave will be set up on Warland reserve for the children to meet Father Christmas and while they are waiting there will be the opportunity to have their face painted. The much loved Carols by the Sea follows the pageant.
